

14th International Kant Congress

THE WORLD CONCEPT OF PHILOSOPHY

Immanuel Kant 1724 – 2024

22 — 26 April 2024

Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University, Kaliningrad, Russia

About the Congress

The 14th International Kant Congress is hosted by the Kant Society (Germany) and the Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University in Kaliningrad. In commemoration of the 300th anniversary of Kant's birth, the conference theme is "The World Concept of Philosophy."

Kant uses the idea of a "world concept of philosophy" at the end of the Critique of Pure Reason to refer to his philosophical system and its architectural structure. It is concerned with the inner connection between all the spheres covered by Kant's philosophy. It is meant to inspire a discussion of "what necessarily interests every person," including the ultimate principles of a good, just and meaningful life. Yet this notion of a World Concept of Philosophy may also refer to the cosmopolitan character of Kant's philosophy.

Sections

1. Kant's Pre-Critical Philosophy
2. Metaphysics
3. Metaphilosophy and Philosophical Methodology
4. Epistemology and Logic
5. Philosophy of Science and Nature
6. Teleology
7. Ethics and Moral Philosophy
8. Legal and Political Philosophy
9. Philosophy of History and Culture
10. Philosophy of Education
11. Anthropology and Psychology
12. Religion and Theology
13. Aesthetics
14. Kant and German Idealism
15. Kant and Neo-Kantianism
16. Kant and Phenomenology
17. Kant and Global Challenges
18. Kant and the Problem of Social Marginalisation
19. Kant and Non-Western Philosophy
20. Kant in Russia

Important Dates

1 January – 1 September 2022      Call for papers

31 March 2023                      Notification of paper acceptance

Call for Papers

The call for papers runs from 1 January until 1 September 2022

Please submit a full paper, consisting of a maximum of 20.000 characters (spaces, footnotes and references included) as well as an abstract consisting of around 1.000 characters (spaces included, in English). Papers can be written in any of the Congress languages (German, English, French or Russian) and address any of the 20 sections and should clearly state which section(s) the author finds most fitting. The paper must be suitable for anonymous review. Hence, they must not contain any references to previous works by the author or to any other element that might reveal the author's identity. The paper must be submitted as a PDF file.

Selected papers will be allotted a slot of 30 minutes, including Q&A. Authors will be notified of the review outcome on 31 March 2023.

Please e-mail your contribution to: kant.congress2024@gmail.com

Participation in the Congress is also possible without submission of a paper but after registration.

The Congress Office will provide all possible assistance with visa arrangements.

Registration

Congress fees for the participation in the congress with or without a presentation in one of the sections:

Regular 80 EUR

Students (with a valid student card) 35 EUR

Visa to Russia

The Congress Office will provide all possible assistance with visa arrangements. Details on obtaining a visa to attend the Congress will be published in autumn 2023 at the latest.

Homepage: <https://kant-online.ru/en/kant-congress2024/>